

MICHAEL E. ROSS OF COUNSEL

Michael Ross is Of Counsel in the Firm's Corporate Department. Michael has over two decades of experience advising private equity, middle-market and family-owned businesses on mergers and acquisitions and other strategic business arrangements as well as all manner of commercial contracts and general corporate matters. Michael has often served as outside general counsel to his clients, providing a wide range of services in areas including licensing, intellectual property, e-commerce, online advertising, employment, energy and real estate.

Prior to joining Sklar Kirsh LLP, Michael practiced corporate law at Credo LLP. Prior to that, Michael worked in-house at Platinum Equity, LLC and a startup energy company, and has also held business positions in management, finance and operations. He began his legal career as an associate at Loeb & Loeb LLP.

Michael received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Stanford University and his J.D. from UCLA School of Law. He is a member of the State Bar of California.
